THE OFFICIAL HNC NEWSLETTER

STARS OF THE NEST

Round 4 saw our A grade heading indoors, with a night game on the menu against Littlehampton. The game started with the athletes strength and pace being utilised. Our girls came out wanting to put on a show for their supporters with a large crowd forming. Littlehampton were a tough competition, however Kate, Lauren and Sophie held strong in the defensive end allowing Hannah, Sarah and Gemma to take control in the mid court. Once the girls had found their feet, it allowed shooters, Madison, Charlotte and Sarah to find some rhythm in the goal ring. Littlehampton proved too strong at the end of the day defeating our girls 44-26.

We saw an impressive turn out from our junior grades, with the younger girls coming out in force to show their support for our highest team. We are blessed with copious amounts of talent and role models at this club and we are grateful to have the opportunity to showcase this in an indoor event. Eden brought an artistic flair to her sign with glitter and photos of the girls on it. Enjoy your signed netball Eden. We love your magpie spirit.

The under 9 Div 2 team is coached by 2024 premiership player, Tahlia Steinwedel. This team has a couple of returning players, with the rest being new passionate netballers.

ROUNDS 4 &amp; 5

PINK ROUND

Just like that pink round has been and gone. Another year of Hahndorf spreading their love and generosity to those in need, and this year was a big one. The whole club showed out in pink socks, ribbons, bibs, zinc, and attire to spread the word on the cause being supported. Both players and supporters of Hahndorf got involved in operating a bake sale table offering an array of home-baked goods, raffle tickets which could result in prizes such as a framed, signed Adelaide Thunderbirds shirt, a signed Sturt Guernsey, and much more.

Nearly 58 Australians are diagnosed with breast cancer every day, making it the most common cancer affecting Australian Women. The Breast Cancer Network Australia (BCNA) is the leading cancer organisation in Australia. They strive to ensure that the best treatment and the utmost care are provided to those affected by breast cancer. The donations made by the public through purchasing from the bake sale and partaking in raffles allowed us as a club to raise around $3,000 to donate to this wonderful cause.

We will continue to support BCNA in any way possible, and the participation of other netball clubs brings us great joy. Similarly, the unwavering support from the Hahndorf Football Club does not go unnoticed. The football club hosted an extremely successful quiz night, and auctioned off a signed Josh Rachelle guernsey to contribute to this wonderful cause.

If you or anyone you know has been impacted by breast cancer, we would like to extend our love and support. By engaging with organisations like BCNA, we are hoping to continue the improvement of treatment and care of anyone suffering with this illness.

Pink Round will forever hold a special place in all our hearts, but none quite so like Susie Wooley. This year, the wonderful event happened to fall on Susie's mother's birthday, May 31. Susie spoke with us about her mother's incredible journey and how netball will forever hold such a special part in her life. Susie's mother passed away from breast cancer in 2018. She was a palliative care nurse who cared deeply for others in their final stages of life, but she was also a tireless advocate and fundraiser for breast cancer awareness and support. In Susie's hometown of Port Augusta, her mother organised large-scale events like the Girls' Night In, complete with fashion parades, to raise money and bring the community together. Her passion for helping others and raising awareness was truly inspiring, and I know she would have loved what the Hahndorf Netball Club is doing with Pink Round.

Netball was a big part of Susie and her mother's bond. Her mum was always there on the sidelines – driving Susie to weekend games and training, supporting her through the wins and the losses, and even travelling to Adelaide so that she could compete in state carnivals. It's that kind of dedication and love that lives on in every cheer from the sidelines, every pink ribbon tied, and every dollar raised during Pink Round.

While we no longer have so many of those affected with us, including Susie's mother, the community embrace and environment of the Hahndorf Netball Club continues to remind all those of the power of connection and support, not just on the court, but in life. This round is about more than just raising awareness; it's about honouring those we've lost, supporting those still fighting, and coming together as a community to make a difference.

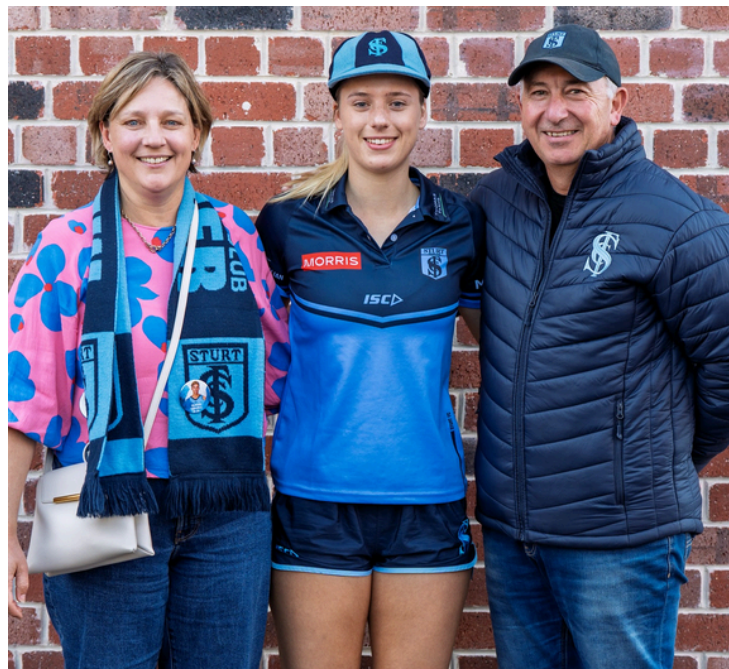

Susie's strength and courage has not gone unnoticed and the entire club and community will always be there to support you, or anyone who is experiencing this dreadful disease.

GEMMA MAKES HER MARK

Gemma Grivell, a star in our A-grade midcourt, made her League Football debut for the Sturt Football Club this week. The Grivell's have been a staple at the Hahndorf Netball and Football Club, and seeing the youngest family member achieve such a feat further shows our home-grown talent and versatility. Gemma had a great first game and looked comfortable right from the beginning. The game was evenly balanced and the scores were close throughout, with Sturt managing to hold onto the lead against Centrals at the major break. Sturt managed to hold onto the lead at the final siren, defeating Centrals 48-44. Gemma hit her goal of 10 disposals, with five kicks and five handballs. Gemma had three marks, four tackles, and three clearances. Gemma almost made miracles happen, lining up for a shot on goal. Unfortunately, the ball was touched on the line. We don't doubt that there will be more goals scored by Gemma in the future. Your success does not go unnoticed and we are so grateful to have you apart of our club.

GENERATIONS OF THE GAME

Mother/ Daughter duo, Peyton and Hannah Waller, got the once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to step out onto the court together. The B4s only had 7 players, and with one of those players running late, superstar supporter Peyton was required to step on the court in WD and play until her replacement arrived. Peyton, who plays a key role in our 13 Division 2 team, took the opportunity with a pep in her step. The opposing team had the first centre pass of the game. From the get-go go Peyton was ready for anything, getting the first intercept of the game. We do not doubt that Peyton is going to go very far with her netball as well as her Hahndorf career. Hannah is a large contributor to the club, as well as Peyton. The two will never fail to volunteer for a task, whether that be umpiring or even working the bake sale table, the duo will be volunteering their time and effort to the club. The Waller family is a large part of this club, and we are grateful they got this opportunity to play together. We were lucky enough to have a short chat with Peyton and ask her a few questions.

BYE ROUND

The bye round this week allows for all teams, both players and volunteers to reassess, relax and rejuvenate. We wish you all a happy weeks break. Please refer to personal teams decisions as to whether training is being held this week or not, as per the discretion of individual coaches.

CANTEEN DUTY

Saturday June 21st, Hahndorf are required to supply volunteers for the canteen to assist in serving customers and cooking food. The Hahndorf Netball Club recognises the importance of volunteers. Our club would not be able to operate without the undying devotion of our volunteers. A timetable of slots which need filling will be supplied by coaches at some point in the near future. We encourage all of those who may have not volunteered to help out this year to stick their hands up. The time slots are roughly 1.5 hours. Again we want to extend a warm thanks to all those who have and are willing to volunteer.

BUDDY NIGHT

Buddy Night allows us, as a club to integrate with one another, and allow for all age groups to join together as one. Wednesday June 4, from 5:30pm-7pm Buddy Night will be held at the netball courts with seniors and juniors training together in a big Hawaiian themed night. Please complete and submit pizza order forms by Monday June 2.
