BATTLE OF THE BIRDS

Round 8 saw a highly anticipated rematch between the two Hahndorf teams, Black and White, in what was always going to be a tightly contested "Battle of the Birds". After a draw in their previous encounter, both teams were eager to claim a victory. The opening quarter lived up to expectations, with both sides matching each other goal for goal. Strong attacking and defensive plays kept spectators on the edge of their seats. A highlight for Hahndorf Black was the return of Rosie Cluff from injury, taking the court at wing defence. Cluff made an immediate impact, applying intense pressure and forcing several turnovers that helped her team gain momentum. Hahndorf Black edged ahead to take a narrow two-goal lead at the first break. Injury forced early changes for Hahndorf Black, with Caroline Dorr moving to wing defence and Katrina Pollard shifting to goal defence. Hahndorf White also made strategic changes, bringing Teagan Trigg into goal shooter and Georgia Squires into wing attack. However, it was Hahndorf Black who settled better in the second term. The defensive trio of Dorr, Pollard and Ashlyn Shearer worked tirelessly to turn over ball, while the attacking combination of Lauren Sutherland, Kelly Childs, Tori Kaesler and Zoe Edwards capitalised on their efforts. The result was a dominant quarter for Hahndorf Black, who extended their lead to 16 goals at halftime. Hahndorf White responded after the break, with Lily Brown and Macy Llewellyn swapping ends and making an impact at both ends of the court. Strong drives from Annika Sexton in the midcourt and impressive defensive pressure from Zoe Fryer and Eva Beckman helped steady the ship, allowing White to match their opposition goal-for-goal in the third quarter. Further changes in the final term saw Hahndorf Black bring Rochelle Tang into wing defence, while Hahndorf White reintroduced Hayley Luke at wing attack.

The two young Magpie talents put on an exciting display, while Montana Phillpott also impressed for Hahndorf White with her court smarts and accurate shooting. Despite White's persistence and a strong finish, Hahndorf Black held firm to record a 14-goal victory in a thrilling contest that showcased the depth of talent across the Hahndorf Netball Club.

Keeping on theme, our two Under 9 teams also played against each other in round 8. Each player had a fun game playing both with and against their friends. It was a close match up throughout the game, with each player challenging each other.

SIDELINE SWOOP

ROUND 7 & 8

VIVIAN BACK IN ACTION

Mid-June saw young gun and seeming regular of the inside swoop, Vivian, being given the opportunity to showcase her netball skills at the SAPSASA netball carnival. Representing the Barker district, Vivian went through trials and selection to be given the opportunity to compete in this three-day competition, held at Netball SA Stadium. Located in Division 2, Barker looked to be comfortable in their competition, having a strong matchup against any opposition. Unfortunately, their competition proved stronger, and although they tried mightily hard, they finished in 8th position. Vivian never fails to amaze us and see a positive and successful career in her future.

GEORGIE'S GAME PLAN

Captain of the B2s and local superstar Georgie Birks offers a bubbly personality and can do attitude wherever she is. You can find her filling in for multiple teams, volunteering to help out the club at fundraisers or volunteer requirements and ensuring that her team is captained to the best of her ability. Georgie's first season as captain has been a chaotic but cracking adventure. The B2s have only snagged one win so far, but what they lack in points, they make up for in laughs, dodgy passes, and regular pub visits, according to Georgie. Leading her team every week has been such a good challenge, and honestly, she wouldn't want to do it with anyone else. Georgie expressed huge love to her coach and club prez Leonie; she's the heart and soul of their team and somehow still puts up with their chaos every week. The attitude Georgie brings to the club does not go unnoticed.

A: Winning the grand final in under 15s

Q: If you could train and play at the top level of any sport, what would it be and why?
